St. John the Baptist

REFLECTION FOR THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: Fr Carlo

Something in Jesus must have attracted some people to follow Him. Maybe they heard John the Baptist and thought He was the One whom John spoke of, that He was the One who would initiate the Kingdom of God. Or was it His personality, His love for the poor, the marginalised, the ones society considered as unacceptable citizens? Let us ask ourselves: What attracts me to Jesus?

Jesus began His proclamation of the Gospel in Galilee—at home, so to speak. He lived there for thirty years. He knew the people and many knew Him. And then came the scenes at the Sea of Galilee. He saw four brothers and called them to follow Him, and they left everything—their boats, their companions, even their father. Without knowing what the future with this Rabbi would bring, they cut themselves off from all that was familiar to them.

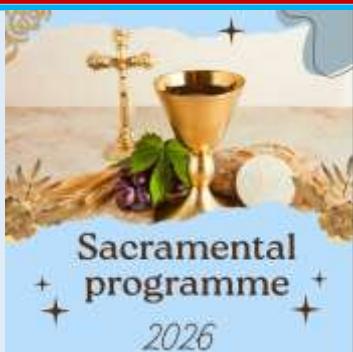

Matthew wanted to make it clear that following the call of Christ would demand a total cut from all that's familiar, with all its securities, and walk after Christ into an unknown future. In other words, following Christ would be an adventure.

When I entered the seminary decades ago, I did not dream that I would live and work in New Zealand. Like the four fishermen, I experienced ups and downs, but like them I never felt alone. He who called me never let me down. After all, following Jesus is following a loving person, not just a set of rules. We follow Him to love the Father who created us in His image. We follow Him to make our world a better place.

Following You, Lord, has made all the difference in my life—I love it! Amen.

This Sunday, 3rd Sunday in Ordinary time is the seventh Word of God Sunday. Pope Francis instituted this celebration in 2020 to encourage a deepening love and appreciation for the Sacred Scripture within the Church.

World Day of Prayer is an international movement of Christian people in many different traditions that have a continuing relationship of prayer and service. People from various denominations gather in one another's churches to celebrate, using a Worship Service prepared by women of a different country each year. Women, men and young people share the language, customs and music of that country, right around the globe. <https://www.worlddayofprayer.org.nz/>
